General Information

Section A – General Information

Please enter the employer’s name and address in the box provided. If the name or address is different from that previously submitted please notify the GSCRC.

Please enter the federal identification number used for local license tax purposes. If this number is different from the number currently used for license tax purposes you must notify the GSCRC prior to filing this return.

Make sure that you enter this information here and on the top of page two.

You must attach copies of all federal form W-2s, including federal form W-3, or an equivalent employee listing for all employees that had or should have had the license tax withheld from their compensation. These W-2s must indicate the tax withheld for each taxing jurisdiction separately or you must attach a schedule detailing the amounts for each. Make sure that you include totals of each amount.

The employee listing must include the employee’s name, address, social security number, total gross wages, social security wages, medicare wages, federal taxable wages, local wages for each jurisdiction and the amount of license tax withheld for each jurisdiction.

Form RE100, Reconciliation of License Tax Withheld must be signed by the person preparing the return including the printed name and title.

Form RE100, Reconciliation of License Tax Withheld including the copies of federal form W-2, W-3 or equivalent listing is required to be filed with the Georgetown/Scott County Revenue Commission by March 1, 2024.

Form PR100, Employer's Return of License Tax Withheld Instructions

Pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Kentucky Constitution and by state statute,

- a) the City of Georgetown, Kentucky has imposed an occupational license tax measured by 1.00% of all compensation paid or payable in the City for work done or services performed or rendered in the City by every resident or nonresident who is an employee.
- b) the Scott County Fiscal Court has imposed an occupational license tax measured by 1.00% of all compensation paid or payable in the County for work done or services performed or rendered in the County by every resident or nonresident who is an employee.
- c) the Scott County Board of Education has imposed an occupational license tax measured by .5% of all compensation paid or payable in the County for work done or services performed or rendered in the County by every resident who is an employee.

As set forth in the occupational license tax ordinance the license tax required to be withheld on an employee's compensation by the employer and remitted to the jurisdiction imposing the tax includes a license tax on, "All wages, salaries, commissions or any other form of remuneration paid or payable by an employer for services performed by an employee, which are required to be reported for federal income tax purposes adjusted as follows:

- (A) include all amounts contributed by an employee to any retirement, profit sharing, or deferred compensation plan, which are deferred for federal income tax purposes under a salary reduction agreement or similar arrangement, including, but not limited to salary reduction arrangements under Sections 401(a), 401(k), 402(e), 403(a), 403(b), 408, 414(h) or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code; and
- (B) include all amounts contributed by an employee to any welfare benefit, fringe benefit, or other benefit plan made by salary reduction or other payment method which permits employees to elect to reduce federal taxable compensation under the Internal Revenue Code including, but not limited to Section 125 and 132 of the Internal Revenue Code."

The ordinance further provides,

- (A) Each employer who employs one or more persons within the jurisdiction imposing the tax shall deduct at the time of payment of compensation to any employee the occupational license tax in accordance with Section 2 of the Regulations. The employer shall report for the quarterly periods ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year the compensation from which license taxes have been so withheld on or before the last day of the month following the end of each such quarter. If the amount of license tax withheld exceeds Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) in any one of the preceding four (4) quarters, see Paragraph (B) below. In addition, the employer shall make the payment required to be made on account of such employee withholding of occupational license taxes on or before the time required for the filing of the quarterly returns.
- (B) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph (A) hereof, monthly reporting is required of each employer who employs persons within the jurisdiction imposing the tax and whose occupational license taxes required to be withheld from all employee compensation for any one (1) of the preceding four (4) quarters shall exceed the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00). If the taxpayer is required to file monthly for any one of the three jurisdictions (City/County/School) then the taxpayer is required to file monthly for the remaining jurisdictions regardless of the amount of the remaining jurisdictions quarterly withholdings. Each employer shall remit the occupational license taxes required to be withheld from employees monthly based upon the following schedule.

The ordinance further provides,

- (A) Each employer who employs one or more persons within the jurisdiction imposing the tax shall deduct at the time of payment of compensation to any employee the occupational license tax in accordance with Section 2 of the Regulations. The employer shall report for the quarterly periods ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year the compensation from which license taxes have been so withheld on or before the last day of the month following the end of each such quarter. If the amount of license tax withheld exceeds Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) in any one of the preceding four (4) quarters, see Paragraph (B) below. In addition, the employer shall make the payment required to be made on account of such employee withholding of occupational license taxes on or before the time required for the filing of the quarterly returns.
- (B) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph (A) hereof, monthly reporting is required of each employer who employs persons within the jurisdiction imposing the tax and whose occupational license taxes required to be withheld from all employee compensation for any one (1) of the preceding four (4) quarters shall exceed the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00). If the taxpayer is required to file monthly for any one of the three jurisdictions (City/County/School) then the taxpayer is required to file monthly for the remaining jurisdictions regardless of the amount of the remaining jurisdictions quarterly withholdings. Each employer shall remit the occupational license taxes required to be withheld from employees monthly based upon the following schedule.

Form PR100, Employer's Return of License Tax Withheld Instructions

Pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Kentucky Constitution and by state statute,

- a) the City of Georgetown, Kentucky has imposed an occupational license tax measured by 1.00% of all compensation paid or payable in the City for work done or services performed or rendered in the City by every resident or nonresident who is an employee.
- b) the Scott County Fiscal Court has imposed an occupational license tax measured by 1.00% of all compensation paid or payable in the County for work done or services performed or rendered in the County by every resident or nonresident who is an employee.
- c) the Scott County Board of Education has imposed an occupational license tax measured by .5% of all compensation paid or payable in the County for work done or services performed or rendered in the County by every resident who is an employee.

As set forth in the occupational license tax ordinance the license tax required to be withheld on an employee's compensation by the employer and remitted to the jurisdiction imposing the tax includes a license tax on, "All wages, salaries, commissions or any other form of remuneration paid or payable by an employer for services performed by an employee, which are required to be reported for federal income tax purposes adjusted as follows:

- (A) include all amounts contributed by an employee to any retirement, profit sharing, or deferred compensation plan, which are deferred for federal income tax purposes under a salary reduction agreement or similar arrangement, including, but not limited to salary reduction arrangements under Sections 401(a), 401(k), 402(e), 403(a), 403(b), 408, 414(h) or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code; and
- (B) include all amounts contributed by an employee to any welfare benefit, fringe benefit, or other benefit plan made by salary reduction or other payment method which permits employees to elect to reduce federal taxable compensation under the Internal Revenue Code including, but not limited to Section 125 and 132 of the Internal Revenue Code."

The ordinance further provides,

- (A) Each employer who employs one or more persons within the jurisdiction imposing the tax shall deduct at the time of payment of compensation to any employee the occupational license tax in accordance with Section 2 of the Regulations. The employer shall report for the quarterly periods ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year the compensation from which license taxes have been so withheld on or before the last day of the month following the end of each such quarter. If the amount of license tax withheld exceeds Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) in any one of the preceding four (4) quarters, see Paragraph (B) below. In addition, the employer shall make the payment required to be made on account of such employee withholding of occupational license taxes on or before the time required for the filing of the quarterly returns.
- (B) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph (A) hereof, monthly reporting is required of each employer who employs persons within the jurisdiction imposing the tax and whose occupational license taxes required to be withheld from all employee compensation for any one (1) of the preceding four (4) quarters shall exceed the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00). If the taxpayer is required to file monthly for any one of the three jurisdictions (City/County/School) then the taxpayer is required to file monthly for the remaining jurisdictions regardless of the amount of the remaining jurisdictions quarterly withholdings. Each employer shall remit the occupational license taxes required to be withheld from employees monthly based upon the following schedule.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A GEORGETOWN/SCOTT COUNTY OCCUPATIONAL TAX TAXPAYER

MISSION

The mission of the Georgetown-Scott County Revenue Commission (GSCRC) is to provide courteous, accurate and efficient services for the benefit of Georgetown/Scott County and its citizens, and administer the occupational tax laws of the City of Georgetown, the Scott County Fiscal Court and the Scott County Public School District in a fair and impartial manner.

RIGHTS OF OCCUPATIONAL TAX TAXPAYER

Privacy—You have the right to privacy of information provided to the GSCRC. The GSCRC is not authorized to discuss your tax matters with anyone unless you authorize the GSCRC to do so.

Assistance—You have the right to advice and assistance from the GSCRC in complying with the occupational tax laws of the City of Georgetown, the Scott County Fiscal Court and the Scott County Public School District.

Explanation—You have the right to a clear and concise explanation of:

- Waiver of penalties, interest or collection fees, in full or in part, pursuant to the GSCRC Consideration of Penalty and Interest Abatement Request Policy on the Resources tab of our website.
- Procedure for an appeal of a determination of the GSCRC; and
- License tax laws and changes in license tax laws so that you can comply with the law.

Appeal—You have the right to appeal a determination of the GSCRC, such as an assessment of license tax or penalty, reduction or a denial of a refund, or a revocation of a license or permit. A complete taxpayer appeal policy is codified in local ordinance and is available at www.gscrevenue.com under the resource tab.

Conference—You have the right to a conference to discuss a license tax matter.

Representation—You have the right to representation by an attorney, accountant or other person in any hearing or conference with the GSCRC. If you intend for your representative to come in your place, you must notify the GSCRC prior to any hearing or conference.

Recordings—You have the right to make an audio recording of any meeting, conference or hearing with the GSCRC, or to be notified in advance if the GSCRC plans to record the proceedings and to receive a copy of any recording.

Consideration—

Penalty and Interest Abatement Request:

The Commission shall have the authority to resolve occupational license fee controversies to the extent of waiving penalty or interest, or both, in whole or in part where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commission that failure to file or pay timely is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. In exercising such authority, the Commission will consider the facts and circumstances of each particular matter and, where necessary, the hazards and costs of litigation. The Commission has no authority to waive any tax due.
